Shindig information:

Shindig Festival (22nd – 25th May) reveals the full programme today. The family friendly event will be held at Charlton Park Estate, Wiltshire.

The vibrant showcase of international talent includes Gilles Peterson, Seun Kuti & Egypt 80 and Moonchild Sanelly – who's collaborated with Beyoncé, Gorillaz, Self Esteem, and Ezra Collective among others.

From explosive live ensembles rooted in afrobeats, highlife to jump up and heavy basslines: Asian Dub Foundation, Ibibio Sound Machine, Gentleman's Dub Club, Dub FX, Mr Scruff ft. MC Kwasi, Dan Shake, Algote Oho & His Sounds of Joy, Romare (Live) and The Reflex.

The Shindig family can look forward to: The Nextmen, A-Skillz, Krafty Kuts, Altern8, JFB, K.O.G., Channel One, Cut Capers, and Raz & Alfa, TC & The Groove Family.

Rap and hip-hop heads will enjoy Toya Delazy, GROVE, and Angry Blackmen - a Chicago based industrial rap outfit known for pushing boundaries. Also Suedejazz Collective, The Scribes, Afrocluster, and Bin Bag Wisdom.

The festival has been dubbed “a pint-sized version of Glastonbury”. Recommended by Emily Eavis, Glastonbury organiser, as a good alternative to those who missed out on tickets and Voted ‘Best For Family Rave’ by Festival Kidz, it’s attracting an ever-more diverse crowd.

Stu Matson, Music Programmer, says:

“The Shindig 2025 line up is a global celebration of rhythm and culture. Where afrobeat meets electronic, reggae meets soul, funk meets industrial rap. Expect fresh beats, bold new sounds, and unstoppable energy. It’s still the ultimate destination for dance lovers – now with even more to discover.”

Shindig Are:

Fiercely independent

The directors of Shindig Festival are an eclectic team consisting of a DJ and record label owner, a circus aerialist performer, a motorcycle stunt showman, an interior designer and an all-round festival stalwart. Their combined talents, experience, eyes and ears for detail is what makes Shindig so special. And fiercely independent.

It will be the eleventh year of the event. The family-friendly festival announced that 2024 would be its last, due to an extremely challenging economic climate - rising costs, tighter regulations and competition from larger corporate shows.

But the team refused to lose sight of what makes independent gatherings so important: a place in which to escape, reconnect with friends and reimagine different ways to live.

In a nutshell

There are no main stages, just a beautiful arrangement of stretch marquees and giant tipis. Plus plenty of secret venues amongst the arboretum and hidden playgrounds to discover. Bringing a healthy dose of foot-stomping funk and a packed programme of entertainment for all ages, Shindig Festival offers relaxation and revelry in equal measures.

Weekend adult tickets are on sale, priced at £205 plus booking fee.
