

Step Into a Night of Glamour and Giving at Malmesbury's Mayoral Charity Ball

Residents, businesses and community members in Malmesbury are invited to step into the Roaring Twenties as Malmesbury Town councillor Stephen James hosts his Mayoral Year Charity Ball on Saturday 18 April.

Set in the historic Malmesbury Town Hall, the evening - which combines vintage glamour with meaningful philanthropy - will raise vital funds for two local charities: HEALS of Malmesbury and Malmesbury & District Foodbank.

Around 100 guests will enjoy arrival drinks and canapés, a two-course dinner prepared by local chef Dan Wyatt, live music, dancing, a charity casino, an auction and raffle.

Malmesbury Mayor, Cllr James, said: "This charity ball is about bringing our community together for a memorable evening while supporting two organisations which make a real difference to local people every day. I hope residents, businesses and friends from across the area will join us for a night of celebration, generosity and shared purpose."

Guests will have the chance to bid on an impressive range of lots generously donated by local and nearby businesses and supporters, including a flight in a vintage de Havilland Chipmunk, a private riding lesson with an international equestrian, a round golf for four people at Bowood, afternoon tea at Blenheim Palace and a chauffeur driven Rolls-Royce experience. Many lots are open for bids now at <https://www.jumblebee.co.uk/mayorsball2026>, but some will only be open in the room.

Tickets are now available, and early booking is advised due to limited capacity. For tickets, visit <https://www.malmesbury.gov.uk/what-s-on/athelstan-museum/whats-on/mayor-of-malmesburys-charity-ball> or the Tourist Information Centre at the Malmesbury Town Hall.

Further auction donations and sponsorships are still welcomed. Cllr James added: "The ball is a valuable opportunity for businesses to align their brand with civic leadership, community well-being and charitable impact, while gaining visibility among attendees from across the area."

For donations or sponsorship opportunities please contact the team at Malmesbury Town Hall at administration@malmesbury.gov.uk

Editor's Notes:

For more information about the event or Malmesbury Town Council please contact media consultant Jo Smyth (07780 639 287) or email jo@wordworker.co.uk.